

LARKSPUR FIRE PROTECTION DISTRICT

9414 South Spruce Mountain Road, Larkspur, Colorado 80118

Business Phone: (303) 681-3284

Toll Free: (877) 758-3635

Fax: (303) 681-3201

Job Announcement

Seasonal

Fuels Crew Member

Operations-Wildland

Status; Seasonal; FLSA Non-Exempt

Work Hours; May thru October, 40-Hour Weekly (Seasonal)

Annual Salary; Starting at $12.00 per hour depending on experience

The general duties and responsibilities of these positions include, but are not limited to;

- Serve as a crewmember of a ten person fuels mitigation crew
- Respond to wildfires locally in the Douglas County (CO) area, under supervision
- Serve as a crewmember of a Type VI engine
- Participate in hazard fuel mitigation projects and being familiar with chainsaw operations, tree felling, thinning, chipping, prescribed fire, brush and slash piling, and public education
- Assist with preventative maintenance on all equipment, station cleaning, tool rehabilitation, and the inspection of vehicles and equipment
- Participate in crew training with an emphasis on daily physical fitness, classroom fire and mitigation training, and field exercises and simulations
- Good communication skills both written and verbal, while possessing a mechanical aptitude is a must
- Maintain availability for the time period of May 1st through October 30th
- Ability to maintain residence with "two hour call back" of Larkspur, Colorado for fire assignments
- Basic wildland fire certifications- NWCG S-130/190, I-100, L-180
- Preferred training to include: S-211, S-212 , FALA (qualified)
- Projected start date: May 1st 2010
- Application deadline: April 15th, 2010

Send resumes to Moises Barrera or Chief Jimmy Bumgarner at:

mbarrera@larkspurfire.org or jbumgarner@larkspurfire.org